

Managing meetings

Meetings are essential to communicating in disasters. But they frequently produce limited outcomes. Creating a format and process that produce results is key.

The role of the chair is to facilitate the meeting in such a way that the collective wisdom of the attendees is tapped into, while keeping discussions in line with the meeting's objectives.

The participants' role is to prepare for, and engage constructively in meetings, so that results can be accomplished.

Planning and Preparation

		Tips for effective meetings
WHY	What are the purpose and expected outcomes of the meeting? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Generate ideas ▪ Find solutions / solve problems / make decisions ▪ Give or share information, feedback, reports ▪ Develop trust, relationships, teams 	Ensure relevant information is available and/or circulated before.
WHAT	Who needs to agree these objectives? What do participants want from the meeting? Is the meeting part of an on-going process?	Clarify, and get agreement on, purpose, agenda and timing. - helps set a purposeful tone to the meeting, and helps keep to the agenda.
WHO	What topics need to be on the agenda? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Use the agenda to explain how each topic will be handled, and for how long ▪ List what people need to bring What is the best way to notify people of the meeting and circulate the agenda beforehand? Bring spare copies!	Start and finish on time - avoids time wasting and helps ensure people take the meeting seriously.
WHERE	Who should attend? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ who needs to attend for decision-making Are the right people available? Is there a protocol for invitations and seating?	Agree ground rules - encourages respectful behaviours. Take time to build trust and involve everyone - good introductions, setting ground rules, use of small discussion groups all encourage open and honest discussion and debate.
WHEN	Which is the best location and venue to suit everyone? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ security, travel requirements, accessibility, stigma ▪ space, equipment, ventilation, catering What is the best layout for the style of meeting – formal or informal?	Keep to the agenda - avoids time wasting and keeps focus on the purpose.
HOW	When is the best time for this meeting? Is there a clear start and finish time which is culturally acceptable to all? Is there sufficient time to achieve the objectives? What breaks will be needed? Is it free from interruptions? What is the best way to start, engage all cultures, encourage contributions, and clarify purpose and expectations? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Introductions, ground rules, ice-breakers What translation and interpretation is needed? How will you record, clarify and circulate decisions and actions? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ on a flipchart or whiteboard; in minutes? 	Record agreed actions - encourages commitment to action and purposeful meetings. Ask for feedback on how to improve meetings - enables better meetings.

When you run a meeting you are making demands on people's time and attention – use it wisely.
